

Maurice Leon's Engagement To Yvette Beza

This is a photograph of my engagement to Yvette Beza in 1956 in Thessaloniki. In the first row from right to left first is my brother Juda Leon's wife Victoria Leon, nee Molho, second is my sister Rahel Leon, nee Leon, third is my sister Zan Cohen, nee Leon, holding her daughter Helen, then is my mother Riketa Leon, nee Sciaky, fifth is my fiancée's mother Sarina Beza and sixth is Mr. Ino Beza. In the second row from right to left first is my brother Juda Leon, second is my sister Zan Cohen's husband Elie Cohen, third is my brother Jacque Leon's wife Anna Leon, fifth is my cousin Alberto Leon, sixth is my sister Berta Matathia, nee Leon, seventh that's me, Maurice Leon, and next to me is my fiancée and future wife Yvette Beza, ninth is Oriet Molho and tenth is Rouvo Molho. My wife Yvette, nee Beza, was born in 1935 in Thessaloniki. Although her mother tongue was Ladino, we are talking in Greek at home. She studied at Anatolia College in Thessaloniki. Her father was called Maurice Beza, her mother Sarina, and she has a brother, Mimis Beza.