

Jakub Bromberg's Birth Certificate

Bodzentynski Obywatelski Urząd
Opł. stamp. Władom wzięto do rejestru stamp. pod poz. 86 ia 1946 r. Gmina Bodzentyn

DIECZKA
 Parafia
 Nr 5

ŚWIADECTWO URODZENIA I CHRZTU

Nazwisko: Bromberg
 Imiona: Jankiel
 Nazwisko i imię ojca: Bromberg Józef
 Nazw. i imię pan. matki: z Hajmencubor Nacha
 Miejsce i data urodzenia: Bodzentyn 21 kwietnia 1919 r. dpu
 Miejsce i data chrztu:
 Uwagi (małż; św. kpl; śl. zak.)

Za zgodność z księgą metrykalną
Jankiel, dnia 17 maja 1946 r.
 Proboszcz
B. Kosiński

m. p.
 „Jedność” N. 225. L. 08100

This is my birth certificate. This is a document which tells about my birth, when and where I was born, who my parents were, what name they gave me...

This is a duplicate which was issued after the war, in 1946.

I was born in 1919, on 21st April, the day after Hitler's birthday. This was at home, in Bodzentyn. We were all born there, in the same beds we slept in. A midwife helped Mother during labor, a Pole, Kazubinski's wife. I was the fourth child. I split the younger and the older siblings. And I am the only one left. When I was three I went to cheder and these first years I spent at home. I remember when I was little, I used to run away from Mother, because I didn't like having my bath in a tub. I couldn't even walk yet, so I'd run away on all fours. I will never forget that. I remember even what shirt I used to wear - a flannel shirt with a pink flower pattern. I usually recall myself as being the one in the bad way. I wasn't allowed to go out and play. I had to stay at home and mind the younger brothers and sister. I had to sit next to the cradle and rock it.